Autumn Dreams

An evening of Fine Food & Wine
Benefiting Boundless Playgrounds

"Bringing the dream of play to children of all abilities."

Thursday, October 30, 2008

Italian Center Banquet & Conference Facility
Stamford, CT

"Autumn Dreams is our way of saying thanks for helping the dream of the Twin Meadows Boundless Playground in Stamford become a reality. We remain passionate about Twin Meadows because it allows children with disabilities like our daughter Jaclyn to play alongside her sister Nicola, a typically able child."

- Frank & Lori Mercede

Boundless Playgrounds

www.boundlessplaygrounds.org

Based in Bloomfield, Connecticut, Boundless Playgrounds is the leading national nonprofit developer of inclusive playgrounds where children, with and without disabilities, gain the important developmental benefits of unstructured play. With the support of individual donors, national foundations, and major corporate sponsors, such as CVS, Hasbro and PLAYSKOOL, we have created more than 130 Boundless Playgrounds in 25 states and Canada with dozens more under development.

Celebrity Chef Jacques Pépin

www.jacquespepin.net

One of America's best-known chefs, cookbook authors, and cooking teachers, Jacques Pépin has published 25 cookbooks and hosted nine acclaimed public television cooking series. "Fast Food My Way" produced by KQED-TV in San Francisco, is Pépin's most recent PBS-TV series (2004), with a companion cookbook published by Houghton Mifflin. A follow-up series and cookbook, both entitled "More Fast Food My Way," is debuting this year.

Twin Meadows

The Twin Meadows Boundless Playground located at Stillmeadow Elementary School in Stamford, Connecticut, was built in 2003 through the generous support and leadership of Frank Mercede, President & CEO of Frank Mercede & Sons, Inc., and his wife, Lori. The Mercedes continue to promote the power of inclusive playgrounds and Twin Meadows has been the catalyst for the building of three more Boundless Playgrounds in Fairfield County.
